

2008 Scholastic Art Awards Regional Winners

By NRVNews Winners of the Southwest Virginia Regional Scholastic Art Awards will be honored at a reception Sunday, January 27, 2008 at the Fine Arts Center for the New River Valley.

Over 30 schools from six counties and the City of Radford were eligible to participate by sending in artwork for regional level judging. From these entries 78 pieces were honored with Gold or Silver Key Awards. Gold Key recipients will have their work sent to New York to represent Southwest Virginia at the national competition.

The Scholastic Art Awards are this country's largest and longest running awards program for students in grades 7-12. Each year over 90 regional sponsors host preliminary judging to select the best work to advance to New York for national judging. This is the seventh year Southwest Virginia has had a regional sponsor.

The Southwest Virginia Awards were co-sponsored by the Fine Arts Center for the New River Valley, the Pulaski County Art League, the Southwest Times, and underwritten by the Bank of America Foundation. The Fine Arts Center, the Pulaski County Art League, the Southwest Times, and the Bank of America Foundation were honored to be able to recognize the work of student artists and their teachers in Southwest Virginia and to help bring this important arts event to the region.
